

Resources for Survivors of Religious Abuse:

SNAP (Survivors Network of those Abused by Priests): support network for people harmed by religious and institutional authorities (priests, ministers, bishops, deacons, nuns, coaches, teachers, and others).

Website: www.snapnetwork.org

Social media: @SNAPNetwork (Facebook)

Details: resources, support groups, and more

FaithTrust Institute: national, multi-faith, multicultural training and education organization working to end sexual and domestic violence.

Website: www.faithtrustinstitute.org

Social media: @SNAPNetwork (Facebook)

Details: informational resources, online book club, and more

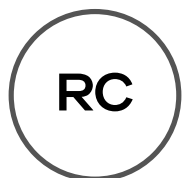

Religious Trauma Institute: mental health professionals, advocates, and researchers offering resources for survivors of religious trauma.

Website: www.religioustraumainstitute.com

Social media: @religioustraumainstitute (Facebook and Instagram) and @religioustrauma (Twitter), plus YouTube

Details: not specific to sexual trauma

Reclamation Collective: Trauma-informed resources on religious trauma, including deconstruction, deconversion, and spiritual abuse

Website: www.reclamationcollective.com

Social media: @reclamationcollective (Facebook and Instagram)

Details: not specific to sexual trauma